

International College of Sustainability Innovations, National Taipei University Guidelines Governing Document Reviews for International Admissions to the International Program on Urban Governance (IPUG)

Approved by the 2012 3rd meeting of the Meeting for the International Program on Urban Governance

Article 5 amended and approved at the 4th meeting of the IPUG for the 2018 Academic Year

Article 1 amended and approved at the 1st meeting of the IPUG for the 2019 Academic Year

Article 2 and 3 amended and approved at the 2nd meeting of the IPUG for the 2019 Academic Year

Article 4 amended and approved at the 5th meeting of the IPUG for the 2021 Academic Year

- Article 1 To ensure impartiality, openness and transparency of the admission review process for international students, National Taipei University introduced the Guidelines Governing Document Reviews for International Admissions to the International Program on Urban Governance (herein after referred to as the “Guidelines”) in accordance with Article 2 of Guidelines for the Implementation of Meetings on the International Program on Urban Governance, International College of Sustainability Innovations at National Taipei University.
- Article 2 Review items for foreign nationals applying to International Program on Urban Governance (herein after referred to as the “IPUG Program”) at National Taipei University and the weight assigned to each item:
1. Relevance of the major and profession (10%)
 2. Research potential (35%)
 3. Academic performance (35%)
 4. Other favorable documents (20%)
 5. English language proficiency: To prove that the applicant’s English ability fulfills the graduation requirements.
- Article 3 The grade assigned to each review requirement and conversion to grade point:
1. A⁺ : 95 to 100 points, extremely outstanding
 2. A : 90 to 94 points, outstanding
 3. B⁺ : 85 to 89 points, excellent
 4. B : 80 to 84 points, good
 5. C⁺ : 75 to 79 points, satisfactory
 6. C : 70 to 74 points, passable
 7. D⁺ : 65 to 69 points, poor
 8. D : 60 to 64 points, extremely poor

9. F : 0 points, fail

- Article 4 Based on the requirements listed in Article 2 of the Guidelines, the sum of grades assigned to an international application by ~~a~~ half or more IPUG meeting members shall be converted into percentiles and weighted to calculate the average document review score, and then ranked against the other applications.
- Article 5 A IPUG admissions review meeting may be convened, and after conducting an overall assessment of the international applicants' ranking (based on their overall admission application scores) and other factors not covered in Article 2 of the Guidelines, an application may be submitted to the National Taipei University for approval of admission and scholarships for international applicants.
- Article 6 Other related rules of the National Taipei University, International College of Sustainability Innovations and the IPUG Program shall apply to issues not addressed in the Guidelines.
- Article 7 The Guidelines and any amendments thereto shall take effect upon approval by the IPUG Meeting.